

P.O.S. Solution is devise for rapidity and safety work, proving style and notable performance. Manufactured as a independent unit of reckoning, dedicated by using in combination with the most varied Softrust Computers products, the P.O.S. Solution becomes the indispensable tool four your affair.

P.O.S. benefits by multiple advantages:

- unlimited number of users;
- the data base size limited only by material support to store;
- the management data.

P.O.S. is by his nature horizontal, offering increased support to co-ordinate with financial control system.

The P.O.S. objective is to provide the required support for co-ordinate and implement the structural tools in hypermarkets, to provide a vertical management and monitoring system for these tools. This objective reflects in global absorption capacity and in the efficient manner of using the structural tools application.

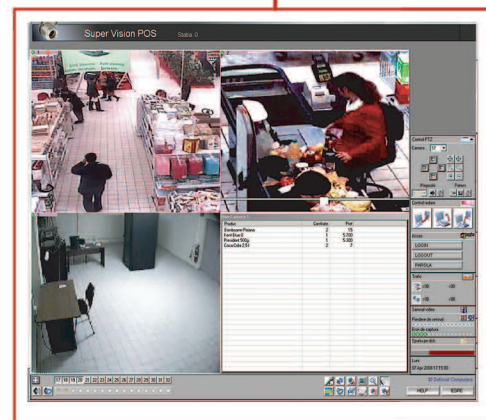

The P.O.S. implementation benefits:

- to obtain structural and process improvements of management characteristic hypermarket cycle;
- the improvement of quality and efficiency of service deliver, principal accent being the audio, video – digital supervision process.

The P.O.S. performance and vacillation:

Proffers to multinational and international retailates the possibility of using a single powerful solution to increase the efficiency of using P.O.S., a real help in taking control decision and in helping the employs to offer excellent services for customers.

This software package includes a complete portfolio consisting in specific supermarket functions, and advanced options to adapt for regional necessities, in international lines.

Super Vision P.O.S. offers you the total control and decreases losses without “disturbing” the customers through verification and comparing the hand cart with the afferent cash voucher.

The controller has permanent access to:

- video shop;
- video cash;
- data base cash.

and can immediately identify if the customer who “had hide” products in his pockets “had forgot” to pay them or not, or if the worker from the cash had made a mistake (premeditated or not).